

A summer

Twenty years is a summer
All day long
With your head in the clouds
Dreaming of faraway lands ( bis ),
Twenty years is a kiss
For an enchanting world
Trouble-free times
Dreams that get lost along the way,

But me....

*I munch through life with relish
I live on another planet
There, I sing constantly
Above your heads
I gather numerous flowers
From which I make garlands of love
I fly to your aid
Today, I'm twenty
I'll take you on my flying carpet
My guitar dances before your eyes
I'll take you beyond the stars,*

Twenty years is to doubt
To no longer be listened to
To make one's own convictions
To die of loneliness,

but me...

*I munch through life with relish
I live on another planet
There, I sing constantly
I gather numerous flowers
From which I make garlands of love
I fly to your aid
Today, I'm twenty
I'll take you on my flying carpet
My guitar dances before your eyes
I'll take you beyond the stars,*

Twenty years is a summer
All day long

With your head in the clouds
Dreaming of faraway lands
I munch through life with relish
I live on another planet
There, I sing constantly
I gather numerous flowers
From which I make garlands of love
I fly to your aid
Today, I'm twenty
I'll take you on my flying carpet
My guitar dances before your eyes
I'll take you beyond the stars.
